With only two months to go, we would like to encourage you to save your spot at the premier gathering of Africans in the diaspora in Silicon Valley. The African Diaspora Investment Symposium (ADIS24) is the ninth annual global convening that celebrates and champions the entrepreneurial and innovative spirit of Africans, African Diasporans, and friends of Africa. Join us March 20-22 at the Hayes Mansion in San Jose, California, as we explore the theme of “Activate with Africa: Climate Change, Connections, and Action” through curated discussions by industry and government leaders.
This year at ADIS24, we have a packed agenda with a wide range of topics for attendees to discuss, collaborate and connect over. Click on the pictures below to learn more about each of the sessions and explore the possibilities for knowledge exchange with your fellow participants.

Sessions

- Entrepreneurship and Investor Forum
- Sustaining the Future: Beyond Remittances to Diaspora Investment in Green Energy
- African Women as Climate Change Champions
- The Role of Tech & Connectivity in Climate Adaptation
- African Artists in the Climate Change Movement: Catalysts for Social Change
- Transformative Education: Climate Change Literacy and Learning
